AMUSEMENTS

Butler Theater

At the Butler theater this evening the following interesting program will be shown: An Edison comedy entitled "The Totville Eye." Here is a comedy that rises far above the ordinary. How old Scotty, in the absence of his chief, sought to make the Totville Eye a real live newspaper—with the aid of young Sammy as a reporter—is nothing short of convulsing and it has a moral, too. "Ireland, the Oppressed," a Kalem drama, in which every scene was taken in Ireland. "Ranch Mates," a Lubin western drama and a Vitagraph comedy featuring John Bunny, entitled "Doctor Bridget." A young fellow too strong to work, a cigarette fiend and an imaginary invalid, plays upon his parents' indulgences. He has doctors and nurses dancing attendance upon him. Bridget the maid of all work, comes to the conclusion that he is a fake. During his parents' absence she drives the doctor from the house, throws the physic to the dogs and sets him to work washing dishes, scrubbing the kitchen floor and doing other odd jobs. He soon develops an enormous appetite, looks and acts like a human being. His parents are delighted and Bridget receives the degree of "Doctor."

Tomorrow the "Stolen Symphony," two reels.

If you have ideas—if you can THINK—we will show you the secrets of this fascinating new profession. Positively no experience or literary excellence necessary. No "flowery language" is wanted.

The demand for photoplay is practically unlimited. The big film manufacturers are "moving heaven and earth" in their attempts to get enough good plots to supply the ever increasing demand. They are offering $100, and more, for single scenarios, or written ideas.

We have received many letters from the film manufacturers, such as VITAGRAPH, EDISON, ESSANAY, LUBIN, SOLAX, IMP, REX, RELIANCE, CHAMPION, COMET, MELIES, etc., urging us to send photoplays to them. We want more writers and we'll gladly teach you the secrets of success.

We are selling photoplays written by people who "never before wrote a line for publication"

Perhaps we can do the same for you. If you can think of only one good idea every week, and will write it out as directed by us, and it sells for only $25, a low figure,
